EXAM RESULT: PASS

Congratulations on passing your CA QAC/PCAPC - Laws, Regulations, and Basic Principles exam!

Note that all QAL/QAC applicants must pass the "Laws, Regulations and Basic Principles" exam and one category exam in order to receive a license or certificate, with the exception of Maintenance Gardeners and Dealer Designated Agents. You must qualify within one year of your exam date to receive a license/certificate, otherwise, the exam you passed will become invalid and a new exam will be required.

You will not automatically be scheduled to retake a failed exam. If you failed an exam and wish to re-exam or want to add additional category(ies), please complete and mail in a hardcopy Reexamination or Adding Categories Application (PR-PML-083) along with any required fees directly to DPR, note that emailed and faxed applications are not accepted. DPR will process your application and let you know when you are approved to schedule your next exam.

If you passed all necessary exams required to gain a license/certificate or to add a new category to a license/cert you already hold, you can expect to receive your DPR license or certificate by mail within three weeks, included with your license will be important information that you should read in its entirety.

If you have any questions regarding the exam process or your score, please contact DPR's Licensing and Certification Program at LicenseMail@cdpr.ca.gov within 30 days. After 30 days, your score is considered final.
